

6516206525.txt

To Whom It May Concern:

I am opposed to any legislation limiting the right for satellite radio to transmit local content. As a consumer and an American I expect my representatives in government to fight for my right to receive information from a variety of sources, not to limit my access. Any legislation that limits the right of satellite radio to local content is in fact limiting my access. I still have the option to access my local terrestrial stations if I so desire.